FUN-kadelic Hand Building in Clay

This class is designed to engage students in spontaneous and energetic art expression through clay. Each student will be encouraged in the exploration of uncharted responses to the tactile and malleable medium of clay. It is here that students will be lead to find their own expression to the instinctive process of creation. Students will use objects found in nature as a source for creating the vessel and expand from there to create some Funky Functional ware. The possibilities are endless!

Oil Painting

This is a painting class for students of any level. Beginning students will learn many of the "how to's" of oil painting such as how to mix colors, explore mediums and new techniques. Advanced students, with the aid of the instructor, will identify strengths and weaknesses and determine where to you want to go with the medium. A list of materials (ranging from $20 - $40) will be discussed on the first day of class. Items to bring to first class: 2 bristle paint brushes: size 4 & size 6, one 11"x14" canvas and a tube of white paint.
